

The view from the center of our universe, seen at “The Great Attractor”

NOTE: In this case,
this is the ONLY
location in the universe where
we WOULD
actually see
the red-shifts
as the Theory
of Relativity
claims it should look-like from every location. The red-shift increases linearly with increasing distance proceeding from the center.